6:00 PM
Virtual Meeting

This meeting was held using conferencing software due to the COVID-19 rules.

I. Call To Order

With a quorum present, the regular meeting of the San Marcos City Council was called to order by Mayor Hughson at 6:04 p.m. Tuesday, May 5, 2020. This meeting was held virtually.

II. Roll Call

Observe a moment of silence.

Council Member Marquez arrived after roll call at 6:10 p.m.

Present: 7 - Council Member Melissa Derrick, Mayor Jane Hughson, Mayor Pro Tem Ed Mihalkanin, Council Member Joca Marquez, Deputy Mayor Pro Tem Mark Rockeymoore, Council Member Maxfield Baker and Council Member Saul Gonzales

III. 30 Minute Citizen Comment Period

The following comments were submitted as written comments and read aloud during the citizen comment portion of the meeting:

Anthony Cross and Margo Handwerker:
Dear members of council, I, Anthony Cross, and my wife, Margo Handwerker, are writing to address Item 6 on the agenda: the drainage, road, intersection and pedestrian improvements along Academy Street and West Sessom Drive. We own a home nearby at 1309 Alamo St, and we’ve taken a keen interest in the project. In particular, we’ve been engaged in a long-running discussion with both the San Marcos Neighborhood Commission as well as city staff about safety improvements for pedestrians and cyclists along Academy and Sessom. Margo addressed council last year when one of her students, Eden Welply, was struck by a car while crossing Sessom Drive and paralyzed. We believe that there is a strong public mandate for safety improvements in this stretch of roadway. Following Eden’s injury, Margo and I became involved with MoveSM, an alternative transportation advocacy group. Together with MoveSM, we worked with the Neighborhood Commission—and with Jennifer Katz in particular—to draft and approve a resolution calling on council to implement safety improvements on this stretch of road. The resolution passed in August, 2019 and was forwarded to council. In January, Margo and I met with Rohit Vij, the city’s senior project engineer, to discuss the city’s plans for improving safety for pedestrians and cyclists as part of the project. We are very pleased by the addition of a traffic signal at the intersection of Sessom and Academy as well as plans for expanded sidewalks. However, we think that the project must also involve changing the striping pattern of the roadway. In particular, we discussed the following changes with Mr. Vij: changing the striping pattern from the current pattern of four traffic lanes (two in each direction) to a three lane pattern—a center turn lane, two traffic lanes, and two bike lanes. (We’ve attached a striping plan proposal from MoveSM for your consideration.) We strongly support this change, and can only mention here that numerous studies have shown that such a “road diet” greatly increases safety for all road users by calming vehicular speeds without any significant impact on automobile traffic throughput. In informal discussion, Mr. Vij indicated that the city was already planning to implement this striping pattern. We noticed that the project description specifies the following in the “legislation details” section: “new pavement markings within the project limits to accommodate cyclists.” However, we do not see an attached striping plan. We’d like to take this opportunity to invite city staff to clarify the respects in which the pavement would be marked to accommodate pedestrian and cyclist safety—and we’d furthermore strongly encourage council and city staff to implement the striping plan discussed above. Doing so would be an important step towards increasing safety for all road users on what is now a very dangerous stretch of road.

Lisa Marie Coppoletta:
Is Bert the City Manager or is he the Emperor of San Marcos. Bert thinks he is the Emperor because he engages in what I call “customer service harassment.” His policy does not follow any policy. Or, to only follow policies when he desires.
In the middle of a global pandemic Bert has his sidewalk people come visit our houses and place leaflets on our mail box with tape. Note the city is not mailing land owners like the Land Development Code requires for developers. The city does not want land owners to know their land is being devalued that is why they do not send official notice as required by those in the business community. Note the city manager has promised proper notification and neighborhood meetings. This promise is on Soundcloud in the public domain. Note that every yard on my side of the block has been butchered for a sidewalk no one uses. The policy voted on by the city council in 2013 is NO ONE SIDED...
STREET SIDEWALKS. BERT is abusing his authority and so it this council. As soon streets will be gentrified because the first thing out of a city planners mouth during re zoning is "it has sidewalks and connect ability." We all got our yards butchered on my side of the street except the city worker who makes sidewalks and fills out a survey he wanted a sidewalk on Belvin. He just does not want one in his yard, he wants one in everyone else yard so he can get over time pay and preserve his property value. We don't get that special treatment from the wanna be emperor Bert. A 50K budgeted sidewalk that has turned into well over $300,000. Note the city worker who makes sidewalks, and got all this over time working months of Saturdays laughing as he butchered my yard is the ONLY resident not getting his yard butchered? Your city workers are not wearing masks and they are refusing to social distance. Citizens have footage of this behavior and this is because your city manager thinks that city employees can be treated differently than the taxpayer who foots the bill for his exorbitant salary special benefits to the Kissing Tree where he lives in a mansion. I’m sure the public can eat sidewalks when they have no food because they lost their jobs due to the pandemic. But, city workers gleefully push on the payroll not following basic CDC guidelines while the rest of the public is on lock down. I say let them eat sidewalks. Your agenda item on Belvin is a pure joke tonight. It was created because Bert has a special relationship with 1333 Belvin. Your city staff ignored the opposition to the sidewalk open records demonstrate secret meetings and secret emails with Bert and 1333 Belvin, who filed a false police report on me (verified by two different video cameras) are the DIRECT RESULT OF THE AGENDA ITEM REGARDING BELVIN TRAFFIC. These meetings at the activity center I was targeted by your city staff and this video is in the public domain. The city will soon find a racial discrimination law suit for its actions on my street. Thank you for your time and God Bless San Marcos.

Liz Dobbins:
Thank you for addressing the critical safety issues involving Sessoms Drive (2020-92R). The improvements identified should help decrease opportunity for additional serious injuries and help improve safety for cyclists. You may receive pushback about disrupting a major thruway at a time when another major cross town traffic area will be disrupted for several months/years (Hopkins). Regardless, it’s important we move forward with the Sessoms improvements. My second short comment involves 2020-30, Parklets. It’s impossible to have it both ways—removing parking spaces from the downtown area even temporarily until August 14—is going to cause most San Marcos residents who use downtown businesses great angst. Setting up a parklet for a special “day” event is one thing; however, allowing expansion will be a detriment for additional business traffic. Summertime is often the only reliable time when parking is easily available. Parklets, while cute and trendy, can create more problems than they can hope to resolve.

John David Carson:
Mayor and City Council:
I respectfully submit this public comment regarding a variety of transportation-related items either on this agenda or hopefully on one upcoming. Items 3 and 5 - Reducing to 25 Miles per Hour: I categorically support speed reduction on all city streets. It is worth noting that oft-benchmarked Boulder, CO is preparing this month to reduce ALL its residential streets to 20 miles per hour as part of its Vision Zero initiative.
“Twenty is plenty,” as they say. Of course, speed limit signage on its own is ineffective at changing behavior, but it communicates priorities and sets the stage for street design changes that are proven to reduce speeds, such as reducing or narrowing vehicular lanes or installing curb or on-street implements. Please note that speed cushions are not always the best tool to achieve traffic calming, and I have include below a link to an excellent graphic depicting a variety of other effective strategies1. Item 6 - Sessom Drive: Site of my first (and thankfully only) speeding ticket at age 16, this is a dangerous street in an active pedestrian and cycling zone near the University. Its overbuilt width of pavement makes it ideal for a four-to-three lane reduction to slow vehicular speeds and to allow for onstreet bike lanes in lieu of cramming pedestrian and cyclist traffic into a single multi-use path. It is great to see the City and University partnering on this area. Please support Item 6, but only with the required inclusion of a four-to-three lane striping road diet. Item 13 - Scooters: Thank you for taking a more measured approach to this emerging form of alternative transportation. Please support Item 13 allowing privately-owned electric motor-assisted scooters and leaving the City the opportunity to pilot a shared program in the future. Item 15 - Downtown Parklets: As downtown businesses attempt to re-open, both additional open-air space and enhanced visibility are important. Please support Item 15 and further ask staff to be highly accommodating in processing applications from businesses for these programs. Slow Streets: Cities large and small are creating “slow streets” by limiting vehicular access and speeds to provide residents more space to safely physically distance while they walk, bike, or play outside.
This is done with basic open barricades and signage on select streets. People should always be the priority on city streets with vehicles invited in only as cautious guests, but this is especially the case as residents and families seek to safely access the outdoors during this time at home. San Marcos should join other progressive communities in implementing a “slow streets” program as soon as possible. Transit: The City was granted $6.4MM in CARES Act funds for transit, roughly three times the current annual transit budget. What an opportunity! I look forward to hearing the City’s plan to deploy these funds to make our buses more resilient to viruses and more usable for citizens after this one passes. We cannot miss this chance to invest those funds to build more transit shelters, to deploy technology to provide real-time and contactless information, and to add capacity and reduce headway for crowded routes such as those serving the University, especially as we look to combine systems. Thanks to you and staff for your service during this challenging moment in our history. I wish for all of you access to the best data and expertise available and for the community’s patience and flexibility as we all navigate through this time together. Thank you. (Comments were limited to three minutes, time expired)

Sara Simpson
Mayor Hughson and San Marcos City Council Members:
We write today as individual members of the Main Street Advisory Board to encourage you to support the temporary parklet program (Agenda Item 14) to allow downtown businesses to occupy outdoor public street space and increase their visibility and ability to conduct safe operations downtown during the Covid-19 pandemic.
Furthermore, we encourage you to ensure that the requirements laid out in the proposed parklet program are appropriately flexible to allow for proper social distancing measures and also help businesses participate easily and without undue burden. Potential amendments to the temporary parklet requirements could include:

- Allow for 2 parklets per BLOCK FACE, not “per block,” to allow more businesses the opportunity to participate and not restrict those that may be geographically close to one another.
- Allow multiple businesses to submit joint parklet applications should neighboring businesses want to apply and create a parklet to benefit both locations adjacent to their shared location.
- Allow for more than two spaces to be occupied by businesses to allow for meaningful capacity increases while practicing proper social distancing. Two spaces may not provide enough space for this and allowing up to three or four seems more appropriate.
- Remove the requirement for the parklets to be ADA-compliant if the business already has accessible outdoor space available to patrons OR if the spaces in front of the business already do not allow for accessible access (such as those that are located down stairs and are not on an existing ADA-compliant sidewalk).
Other adjustments to the ordinance that would make the parklet application process and regulation thereof accommodating and more flexible to allow both staff and participants to adapt their parklets and outdoor business presence as the Covid-19 situation evolves.

Lastly, as many other cities small and large are doing at this time, we also encourage you to consider the implementation of a slow street program with the potential closure of select streets to through traffic to further increase safe public space available to downtown visitors as we all practice social distancing measures in the coming months. Thank you for your review of these matters.

Council Member Baker stated that there has been an increase of river activity, concerned about more citizens gathering at the river and seeing protests in other parts of the country and asked how San Marcos Police Department have organized, if a protest occurs at the river. Mr. Stapp responded that park rangers will be the first responders to calls at the park. However, park rangers can call for assistance from the police department, if needed. Mr. Stapp mentioned that between the numbers of warnings and issuing citations have been relying upon on modeling education, compliance with heavy enforcement. Mr. Stapp stated that if a protest does arise, the park rangers will peacefully disburse using education and diplomacy.
Community Development Block Grant (CBDG) Funding Options Related to COVID-19 Presentation

Michael Ostrowski, Assistant Director of Planning and Development Services, provided the CBDG funding options to COVID-19.

CDBG-COVID Information
- HUD has awarded the City $425,261 in CDBG-CV funds (reimbursable funds).
- Special funding allocation to prevent, prepare for, and respond to Coronavirus (infectious disease).
- Eligible projects and programs must satisfy a national CDBG program objective, and should address one or more of the priority needs identified within the Consolidated Plan.
- Eligible applicants may include for-profit entities (programs geared primarily to serve low- to moderate-income persons/families), non-profit organizations, government agencies, and City departments; the City is not accepting applications from individuals who need personal housing or other financial assistance.
- Process specific changes:
  No 15% cap on Public Services for this or any other funds used for Coronavirus response.
  Substantial Amendment will be required for use of CDBG-CV funds.
  HUD reduced standard 30-day public comment period to 5 days.
  If necessary, PY2019 and PY2020 CDBG-Entitlement funding may be re-allocated for eligible COVID-19 activities.
  - Limited guidance has been provided at this time, but HUD has instructed communities to start the amendment process for needed plans.

CDBG-Entitlement Information
- City was awarded $722,904 in CDBG-Entitlement funds for PY2020-2021 (reimbursable funds).
