- (b) Completeness of application. Applications shall not be considered complete until all documentation required under this article has been submitted, and until the full application and permit fees have been paid. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.
- (c) Acknowledgement by applicant. In connection with submission of the application, each applicant shall acknowledge that any permit granted by director under this article does not supersede any property-specific restrictions against short term rentals that may exist under law, agreement, lease, covenant or deed restriction.
- (d) The fee for the renewal of a permit to operate a short term rental is set in the consolidated fee schedule.

Sec. 34.806. Expiration and renewal of permit.

- (a) Unless revoked by director earlier pursuant to this article, a permit to operate a short term rental expires, as follows:
 - (1) (Type 1) permits expire annually after the date of issuance
 - (2) (Type 2) permits expire two (2) years after the date of issuance
- (b) A new permit shall be required if a change in ownership, trade name or transfer occurs prior to the expiration of the current permit. The new landlord, owner, or registrant of the premises or rental unit shall have 30 days from the date the change occurred to file a new permit with the city and pay the applicable fee.
- (c) The director shall follow the procedures set forth in this article when determining whether to renew a permit.
- (d) Upon receipt of an application for renewal of the permit, the director may deny the renewal if there is reasonable cause to believe that:
 - (1) The registrant has violated any ordinance of the city, or any state, or federal law on the premises or has permitted such a violation on the premises by any other person; or
 - (2) There are grounds for suspension, revocation, or other permit sanction as provided in this article.

Sec. 34.807. Issuance or denial of a permit.

A license shall be denied under this article if:

- (a) The short-term rental is not the applicant's primary residence. In determining whether a location is the applicant's primary residence for short-term rental licensing purposes, the director may consider any of the following applicable factors:
 - (1) Whether the applicant has or claims any other location for domestic, legal, billing, voting, or licensing purposes;
 - (2) Whether and how often the applicant returns to the short-term rental or resides at any other location within a calendar year;
 - (3) Whether the address listed on an applicant's legal documents or tax assessment records is different than the address of the short-term rental;

- (4) Whether an applicant's business pursuits, employment, income sources, residence for income or other tax purposes, leaseholds, situs of personal and real property, and motor vehicle registration indicate that the short-term rental is the applicant's primary residence;
 - (5) Whether the amount of time that the short-term rental has been, or will be, rented within the calendar year indicates the short-term rental is or is not the applicant's primary residence;
 - (6) Whether the applicant is actively deployed in the United States military; or
 - (7) Whether any other relevant information discovered by the director or submitted by the applicant indicates that the short-term rental is or is not the applicant's primary residence.
- (b) There is good cause to deny the application.
 - (c) The applicant fails to provide a complete application and documentation required pursuant to section 34.805.
 - (d) The application fails to comply with any state or local laws, or any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.
 - (e) A short-term rental license may be suspended or revoked for any of the grounds for denial set forth in section 34.812 of this article.

- (b) Emergency contact. During any period when a Short Term Rental is occupied or intended to be occupied by Guests, the Local Contact Person shall be available 24 hours per day for the purpose of responding to concerns or requests for assistance related to the condition, operation, or conduct of Guests of the Short Term Rental. The Local Contact Person shall respond within 60 minutes of being notified of concerns or requests for assistance regarding the condition, operation, or conduct of Guests of the Short Term Rental, and shall take immediate remedial action as needed to resolve such concerns or requests for assistance.
 - (c) Violation of any section of this article shall constitute an offense resulting in permit revocation in accordance with subsection 34.812, revocation procedures.
 - (d) Failure to timely pay any applicable hotel occupancy tax is a violation of this section and shall result in permit revocation if arrearage is not paid within ninety (90) days of the issuance of a delinquency notice, in accordance with subsection 34.812, revocation procedures.
 - (e) Failure to successfully complete the renewal process of a short term rental permit is considered a violation of this section.
 - (f) The provisions of this subsection are in addition to and not in lieu of any criminal prosecution or penalties as provided by city ordinances, county, or state law.
 - (g) For each day any violation of this section occurs it shall constitute a separate offense and is separately punishable but may be joined in a single prosecution.

Sec. 34.812. Revocation procedures.

The director is authorized to suspend or revoke a short term rental permit issued under the provisions of this chapter wherever the permit is issued in error, or on the basis of incorrect information supplied, or where it is determined that the building, structure, unit, or portion thereof is in violation of any ordinance or regulation or any of the provisions of this article. In addition, if any violations have been committed and not corrected within the time specified, the director shall begin the procedures to revoke the short term rental permit in accordance with the following:

- (a) The director shall give written notice to the owner/operator regarding the revocation.
- (b) If a short term rental permit is revoked, the owner/operator may not reapply for the same property for a period of twelve (12) months.

Sec. 34.813. Appeals.

If the director denies issuance or renewal of a permit or suspends or revokes a permit issued under this article, the action is final unless the permit holder files a written appeal within ten (10) business days to the director, or his/her designee. Appeals regarding technical matters will be reviewed by the appropriate advisory board.

Sec. 34.814. Records/Reports.

- ~~(a) Each hosting platform that facilitates the rental of a short term residential rental within the City must submit to the Department a quarterly report that includes the information set forth in Subsection (C) of this Section.~~
- (b) Each operator must submit to the Department a quarterly report as requested from the director that includes the information set forth in Subsection (C) of this Section, ~~but only to the extent that such information is not collected by a hosting platform.~~
- (c) Each report required by Subsections (A) and (B) of this Section must state, for the quarter being reported and with respect to short-term residential rentals within the City:

- (1) The number of bookings, listings, and operators;
 - (2) The average number of bookings per listing;
 - (3) Current year-to-date booking value;
 - (4) Current year-to-date revenue collected from all short-term residential rentals through the hosting platform, disaggregated by operator; and
 - (5) The average length of a short-term residential rental.
- (d) Each booking service provider shall provide the following information for short-term rental transactions facilitated in the City of San Marcos upon request:
- ~~(1) The name of the person who offered the short-term rental;~~
 - ~~(2) The address of the short-term rental;~~
 - ~~(3) The dates for which the short-term rental was booked by a guest;~~
 - ~~(4) The price paid by the guest for each short-term rental transaction; and~~
 - ~~(5) The short-term rental license number.~~
- (e) The department shall maintain and make publicly available a list of all licensed short-term rentals within the city.

Sec. 34.815. Nonconforming rights.

~~Short term rentals (Type 1) in existence as of date of ordinance shall maintain rights limited by 34.808 (a)(1). Properties which are used as short term rental (Type 1) establishments as of date of ordinance adopting this article that can also provide written confirmation showing proof of permit and proof that their account is not in arrears with the City of San Marcos Finance Department for hotel occupancy tax collection, may be registered as short term rental (Type 1) establishments at the department of development services and upon such permit will be granted a permit, subject to compliance with requirements under this article. Permitting of the short term rental (Type 1) establishment shall be complete with receipt of applicable permit. Permit is not transferable to another owner, operator, or location. Nonconforming rights shall not transfer with change of owner, and any short term rental permit shall be revoked by director. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of this subsection, the conveyance or transfer of a unit or property ownership to a legal entity controlled by or providing equitable ownership of the prior owner shall not constitute a change in owner. It shall be the obligation of any new property owner to apply for a new short term rental permit under this article, and to provide evidence satisfactory to director that ownership did not change, in order to maintain nonconforming rights hereunder. Nonconforming rights only pertains to Section 34.808 (a).~~
