MAD SCIENTIST

Feeling creative?
Feeling messy?

Discovery Camp had a blast erupting their clay Volcanoes they made on Monday as well as other messy experiments with Dry ice and ivory soap at the Discovery Center

Discovery camp had so much fun last week being Mad Scientist! Our campers got to make BIG messes while learning BIG things!

DoSeum Fun!

Discovery Camp enjoyed their Wednesday field trip to the DoSeum going from room to room doing hands on activities in various themed rooms and a picnic lunch afterward in Lions Park in San Antonio.
