Historic Downtown San Marcos

What is Main Street?

Main Street is a developmental program designed to capitalize on the unique character of the San Marcos downtown commercial district.

Programs and projects are developed to address the needs of the our historic downtown.

San Marcos received official Main Street designation from the Texas Historical Commission in 1986. The National Trust for Historic Preservation and the Texas Historical Commission have recognized the San Marcos Main Street Program as a National Main Street City annually since 1999 when the designation began.

The City of San Marcos Main Street Program follows state and national guidelines for Main Street cities.

Main Street's success is based on the National Trust's Four Point Approach. Following the strategies of the Four Point Approach, a comprehensive plan of work is developed and tailored to address local needs and opportunities.

The Main Street Four Point Approach

Organization: To establish consensus and cooperation by building partnerships among different groups and work together in support of revitalizing the “heart of our City”.

Design: To encourage appropriate, high-quality design in maintenance, renovation, rehab, infill construction, and re-use of downtown buildings.

Promotion: To create a positive image of downtown for citizens and tourists through marketing, special events, festivals, and promotions.

Economic Restructuring: To strengthen downtown's existing economic base, identify market needs, and develop programs to meet those needs.

Did You Know?

★ San Marcos is considered to be the oldest continuously inhabited site in North America. Artifacts unearthed near Spring Lake date back more than 11,500 years. The combination of fresh water, abundant wildlife, and the availability of chert for tools made this area attractive to Native Americans. Canaquedista was the name local Native Americans used for the headwaters of the San Marcos River. Until 1848, Hays County was part of Travis and Bastrop counties when it was organized with San Marcos as the county seat. The County was named for Cpt. “Jack” C. Hays, a Texas Ranger. The statue of Hays on the square is by noted San Marcos sculptor Jason Scull.

★ Eli Merriman, Edward Burseson, and William Lindsey bought land where the town of San Marcos now stands and laid out the town site; they sold the first lots in 1851. Eli T. Merriman, was the first physician in San Marcos. Merriman’s log cabin, built in 1847, has been restored and is located in Veramendi Plaza near the Cock House Museum.

★ The Charles S. Cock House was erected in 1867. Cock served as mayor of San Marcos from 1881 to 1883.

★ In 1849, the temperance movement was sweeping the country. In San Marcos it had dramatic results. A Mr. Erhard attended a temperance meeting and was converted. He went back to his store and poured his entire stock of liquor into the gutter. Some of his hogs drank the whiskey and ran squealing through the crowd at the temperance meeting where attendees thought that the “evils of the converted” had been cast into the swine!

★ In the late 19th and early 20th centuries a 55 lb. iron triangle hung from a tree on the north side of the Courthouse. It was used to summon firefighters. The triangle also was struck six times every evening at 6 pm. to signal the end of the downtown business day. The triangle now hangs in the Central Fire Station. A replica and marker are found on the north side of the Courthouse lawn.

★ The Old Hays County Jail (Fredericksburg Street) was built in 1884. This building served as the county jail until 1937 when frequent breakouts and repairs necessitated a new one. Hays County’s only official hanging was held in the jailyard on April 9, 1915.

★ The present Hays County Courthouse is the fourth building to serve that purpose. The first courthouse was located on Union Street and also served as a church and school. In 1854, a $2000 forfeited murder bond resulted in the building of Hays County's second courthouse in 1861, relocating the site to the Square. The present building was erected in 1909 and restored between 1997 and 1999.

★ If you travel along Hopkins Street towards New Braunfels, you will be following the original route of El Camino Real, now a national trail. The El Camino Real or "King's Highway" connected Mexico with East Texas.

★ The restored Old State Bank (Hopkins & Guadalupe) was robbed by the infamous Newton Boys, in 1923. They used too much dynamite, blew out the bank walls and sent money raining down in the streets. In the 1970's, the building was temporarily refurbished as the Beacon Hill Bank, for the movie "The Getaway" with Steve McQueen and Ali McGraw.

★ Back in 1872, when San Marcos was still a country village, hogs running loose in the streets was the town's most controversial problem.

★ The oldest building on the Square is Harper's Hall (139 E. Hopkins) built in 1873. "Willie" Harper operated a highly successful livery stable and blacksmith shop on the ground floor and an opera house on the 2nd floor. The balcony of Harper's Hall was a popular place for politicians to make their heated speeches to the crowds below. Although little of the original building remained, it was rehab'd using a historic photograph and looks much like the original, minus the stable of course!

★ Attorney Henry Kyle had his office at 118 N. LBJ. He was a contemporary and fierce opponent of President Lyndon Baines Johnson. When Austin Street was changed to LBJ Drive in the 1960s, Mr. Kyle refused to use the new LBJ Drive address and, instead, listed his address as "East Side of Square." (See historic plaque at the office location)

★ Fire Station Studio building, 224 N. Guadalupe, was home to City Hall and the San Marcos Fire Department from 1915 to 1969. Look for the grave of the Fire Department's mascot "Jack" at the northwest corner. Jack was not a Dalmation, as one might expect, but rather a Fox Terrier.
